On August 26, 2005, Plaintiff's counsel filed an unnoticed request in which he seeks to vacate the Status (Pretrial Scheduling) Order in this action. Plaintiff's counsel states one of the parties will oppose the request. Plaintiff's counsel indicates that the request has been filed because "the relationship between Plaintiff and [Plaintiff's counsel] has deteriorated to the point at which [Plaintiff] has discharged [counsel]." (Req. at 1.)

1 This conclusory argument is insufficient to show that good
2 cause justifies changing the Scheduling Order. Therefore, the request
3 is denied.
